

BARK

for Kindness

COLORING BOOK

In honor of Drayke

by Elizabeth Peace

sgt. bark

Copyright 2024 Elizabeth Peace
No part of this may be re-created or sold for personal or educational use only

Be Kind

B is for Be Kind and use kind words and actions.

Ask with Respect

A is for Ask others to play kindly and include everyone.

Reach Out

If you see someone being bullied, offer your support.

Keep safe

If someone is being bullied, tell a trusted adult who can help.

In Loving Memory of Drayke

Drayke Andrew Hardman was a bright light in the lives of all who knew him. Born on May 26, 2009, he was known for his infectious laughter, amazing magic tricks, and his big dream of becoming the shortest NBA star.

He loved the color purple, had a huge heart, and was always quick to make someone feel like a friend. Drayke's courage, kindness, and joyful spirit continue to inspire children and adults around the world.

This coloring book is dedicated to Drayke's memory — to celebrate his life and remind every child that kindness ma-

Learn more and join the movement at DoltForDrayke.com